DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1-13, is drawn to an analytic system including a biochip.

Group II, claims 14-17, is drawn to analytic system with a first and second light source for optical analysis of a biochip.

Group III, claims 18-20, is drawn to an analytic system including a second detector.

1. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: A group of inventions is considered linked to form a single general inventive concept where there is a technical relationship among the inventions that involves at least one common or corresponding special technical feature. The expression special technical features is defined as meaning those technical features that define the contribution which each claimed invention, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art. In this case, the claims are united in being directed to an analytic system with a first and second light source for optical detection of analytes of claim 14 and the analytic system for optical analysis of the biochip of claims 1 and 18. However the analytic system having a first and second light source of claim 14 is anticipated throughout the entire document by T. Wilson et al., WO 00/43819, GB, July 27, 2000, see specifically Abstract; col 3, lines 4-7; col 6, lines 7-27; col 9, line 19-20; col 11, lines 25-31. Notice of References Cited (Form PTO-892) is enclosed. Therefore, the claims lack a unifying "special technical feature".

2. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

In Group I, claim 1, the species of analyte identified on page 6, lines 12-15 of specifications. Applicant may elect one.

In claim 6, the species of first light source is selected from the group consisting of laser or light emitting diode.

In claim 7, the species of registration marker is selected from the group comprising a fluorescent dye, a luminescent compound, a phosphorescent compound, or a reflective compound.

In claim 8, the species of analyte signal is selected from the group consisting of a fluorescence signal, a chemiluminescence signal, or a phosphorescence signal.

In claim 9, the species of detector comprises a photo-multiplier tube or a charge-coupled device.

In claim 10, the species of analyte signal is selected from the group consisting of a fluorescence, chemiluminescence, or phosphorescence signal.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

3. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

The following claim(s) are generic: 1, 14.

4. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the reasons discussed above.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Garrison Owens whose telephone number is 571-270-3060. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Thursday, 7:30AM - 5PM, ALT. Friday, EST.
